MOVING IN

The very first event of the year was the moving in process. Mentors were on hand to help the incoming freshmen.

During orientation week, freshmen arranged their rooms, met new people and got their first taste of college life. Then the returning students arrived a few days later and classes began.

Right — Hailey Ferrell, Celeste Boyd, Patricia Hedgecock and Maggie Michaelian welcome freshmen and distribute keys.

Susan Harris and Judith Poston enjoy seeing each other after a long summer.

Debbie Shutt and Joe Ross gave out keys in East Lobby.

Randy Doss helps carry in luggage while Julie Anderson rests.

Eric Gorman loads luggage cart at East Dorm loading dock.

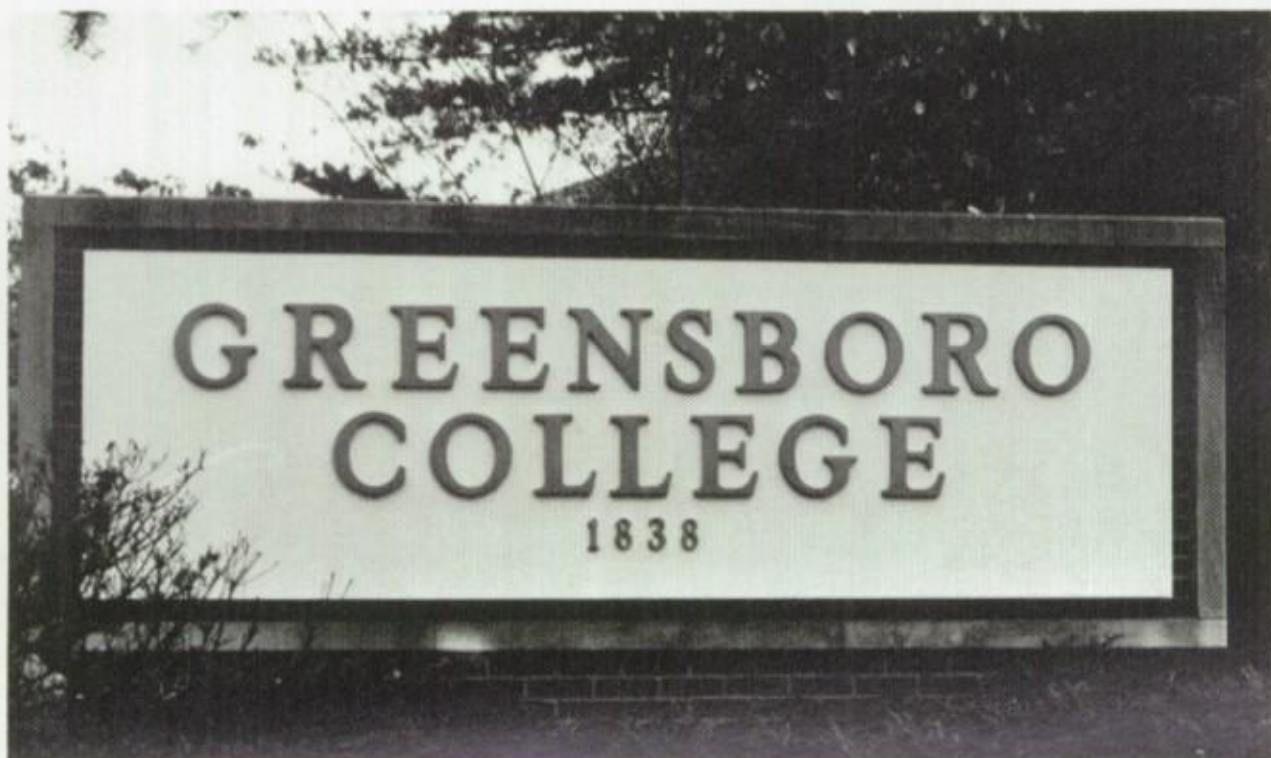

Some upper classmen rest on the steps of West Dorm.

Dr. Likins talks with new students in Lea Center during Orientation.

VIEWS OF THE CAMPUS

Sitting at the edge of downtown Greensboro scenic Greensboro College is a relief from the concrete and asphalt. Although small in size GC has many beautiful views. The Georgian Architecture along with the green front lawn make GC one of the prettiest spots in the area. Finch Chapel to the right of Main Building

Top — The College sign sits at the corner of W. Market and College Ave.

Right — The Fountain is a beautiful addition to the view of front campus.

PICNICS

To break the monotonous routine of eating in the cafeteria several picnics were held on campus. The picnics served not only as a change, but a perfect time to talk with friends.

Hailey Ferrell, Celeste Boyd and Wendi Clark talk on front campus as Keith Chitwood walks by.

Lee Moore, David Baker, Pat Marshall, Brain Patterson and Keith Chitwood eat on the steps to Main Building.

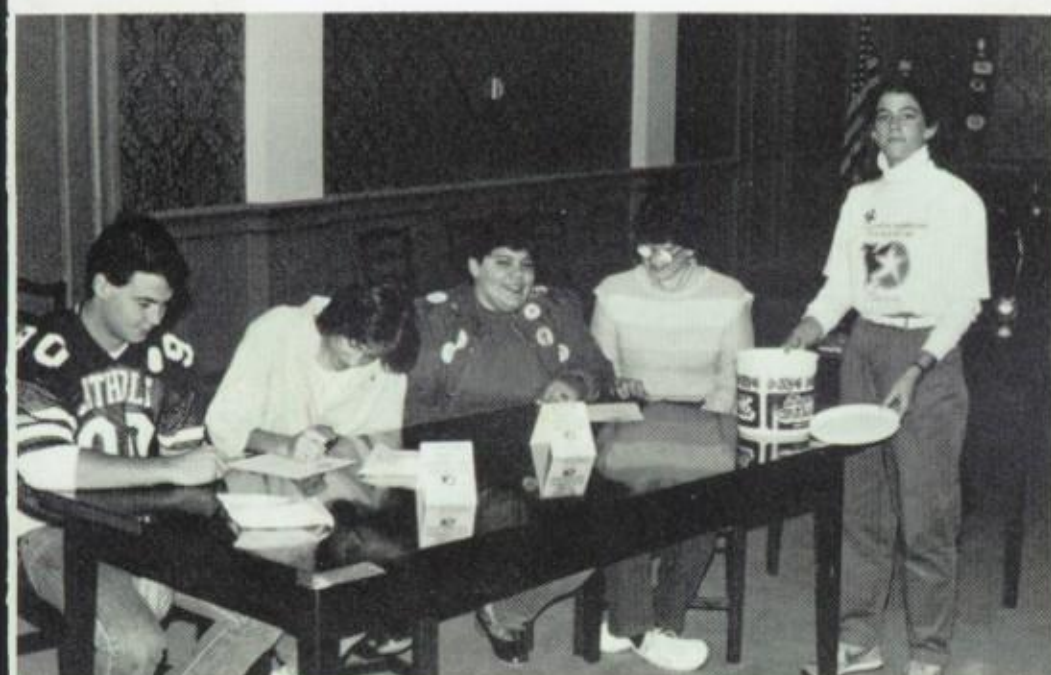

Deborah Whaley and Spencer Gorden talk while the others eat.

STUDENTS THAT CARE

During the course of the year students had several opportunities to help with a certain cause. The Mentors sponsored the Blood Mobile which allowed faculty, staff, and students the chance to give blood. The SGA sponsored the Smoke-Out. Members sold t-shirts and tried to convince people to stop smoking. The PE Club sponsored a Jump Rope for Heart which raised $454.00 for the American Heart Association. The students involved in these causes did a great service.

DAILY ROUTINES

William Phillips walking back from class.

In the progression of the year, students fall into an everyday routine. Getting up, eating, going to class, studying, an occasional trip to the STU and attendance at a sporting event are just a few examples.

To break the routine, the STU offers the students a change in schedule. Many informal dances are offered during the year where students can release tension, forget about studying and enjoy the time with their friends.

Below — It's not unusual to see a group of girls get up and dance.

CONVOCATION

Traditionally at the beginning of each semester Greensboro College has a Convocation to honor Dean List students and welcome new students. Students sit with their classes and the Faculty proceeds in their Academic Regalia. This year Dr. Likins presented a "short" speech welcoming the students back to school. Ex-GC President Ralph Jolly was the guest speaker. Dr. Jolly shared inspiring and humorous thoughts with the students, faculty, staff, and many welcomed guest.

Faculty listens intently to Dr. Jolly's words.

SPECIAL VISITORS

It would be nearly impossible to review every event that took place on campus this year. Through freshman symposium and the concert/lecture series many speakers and performers were on our campus. The following pages will review just a few.

MAGIC OF MARK DANIEL

A good crowd showed up to see/hear the magic/comedy of Mark Daniel. A teaser at lunch started the day and was followed by an evening of tricks/jokes.

CASINO NIGHT

BLACK JACK CRAPS ROULETTE Sound like fun, it was as the STU sponsored the annual Casino Night. GC turned into the "Las Vegas" of North Carolina. Players finished the evening by bidding on over fifty prizes including GGO tickets, Billy Joel tickets, a TV, beach wear, and much more.

OCTOBERFEST WEEKEND

The STU presented their annual Octoberfest Weekend October 3rd and 4th. The weekend included a Lip Sync Contest on Friday Night; a picnic lunch, rock band — FOR TAY, and a balloon sponsored by 99.5 FM on Saturday; and movies and a Super Sub on Saturday Night.

BEACH TRIP — 1986

"A Farewell to the Hornet Bus" would be the theme for this year's beach trip. Students enjoyed a weekend at North Myrtle Beach where tanning and a little partying helped to alleviate the burden of studying. Of course, the whole weekend could not be perfect as the bus broke down on the way home.

The crew coasted into Greensboro and paid last rites to the bus.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

The Christmas Season began with an excellent dinner presented by the Cafeteria. Faculty, Staff, and Students enjoyed the festive occasion complete with a surprise visit from Santa Claus. The festivity continued in the STU where the Christmas Coffeehouse was conducted. The Concert Band played while others joined in the singing of Christmas Carols.

FESTIVAL OF LESSONS AND CAROLS

The Twenty-first annual Festival of Seven Lessons and Carols was presented to the GC Community on Dec. 7th. The Service was brought to GC in 1966 by Dr. James Hull who was introduced to it in Cambridge, England. This year Lessons were read by Carole Stoneking, John Shields, Mary Kit Dunn, Sam Moore, Catherine Cox, Fred Proctor, and Mary Hamlin. The GC Chorale sang several Selections with the congregation joining in on the Carols. With front campus decorated, "Silent Night" was sung around the Fountain.

SNOW!

"Greensboro College will not close due to snow". Well that's what they use to say, but once again Mother Nature proved our administration wrong. Twelve inches of the white stuff fell and not only caused classes to be cancelled but the whole city was at a standstill. If that was not enough another eight inches fell several weeks later.

DIAC CHAMPIONS

Once again the GC Volleyball Team won the DIAC regular season with a perfect 12-0 record. Overall the team finished with a record of 30-11 and was ranked 19th in the nation. Coach of the Year Jean Lojko said, "this was the best team GC has ever had. We were unfortunate to lose in the Conference Tournament Finals, but that cannot overshadow what this team accomplished." The team finished 3rd in the Liberty University Tournament and 3rd in the UNCG/GC Tournament. Also, many individuals received numerous awards this year. With six returning players, next year's team looks to continue the winning tradition.

SOCCER

Eddie Miller shoots on goal versus Mt. Olive.

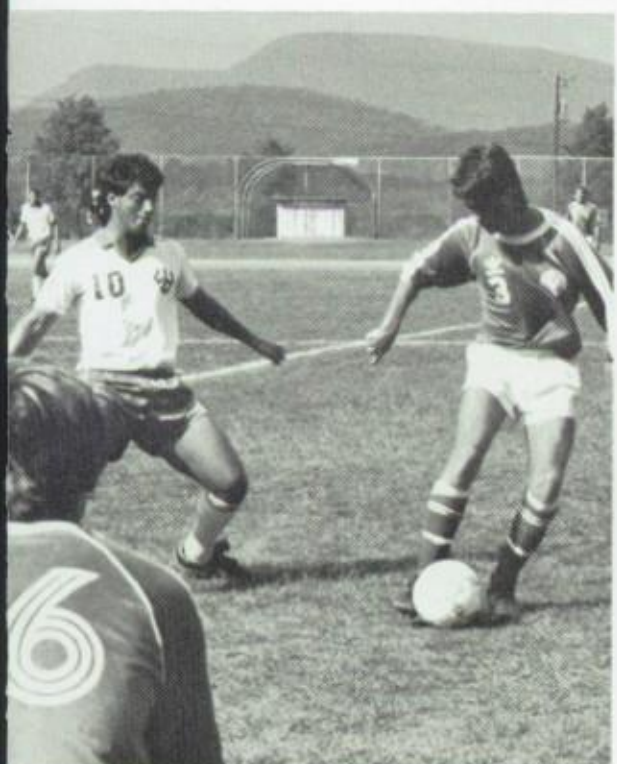

Doug Johnston prepares to pass to Jim Quigley.

Greensboro College's Soccer Team finished their season in fourth place in the DIAC with a 10-9 overall record and a record of 4-3 in the conference. This was GC's highest finish since 1976. The DIAC is probably the strongest Division III conference in the nation, with three teams being ranked in the top twenty. The Hornets lost to the National Champions of UNCG 2-1 in front of 3,000 fans. Demonstrating that it was no fluke, the Hornets dominated the #10 nationally ranked team of Christopher Newport and came away with a 2-1 victory. The Hornets also lost a disputed game to NC Wesleyan 1-0, on a penalty kick. The Hornets leading scorers, were Mauricio Silva and Jim Quigley. The defense played exceptionally well all season, and was led by back Tim Blanck and keeper Tim Guter. Altogether, six game records fell and five season records were established. The team will return next year with a strong nucleus and will compete for the conference title. Pictured at the upper left are, front row — Chris Barrass, Tony Bowen, Jim Quigley, Tim Guter, Jim Wasenda, Steve Huff, Mike Krupica, Keith Chitwood, and Mike Gehring. The back row includes — Elizabeth Kilpatrick (manager), Doug Hamilton (assistant coach), Brian Patterson, Tim Blanck, James Ellis, Larry Meinster, Eddie Miller, Mauricio Silva, Doug Johnston, and Jack Poland (head coach).

Chris Barrass clears the ball from trouble versus arch-rival UNCG.

Tony Bowen pushes the ball up versus ECU.

Tim Blanck, Mike Krupica, Tim Guter, and Mauricio Silva (not pictured) were selected to the All-South Region Team.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Women's Basketball Team finished the season with a record of 14-13. This included a record of 8-6 in the Dixie Conference, which was good enough to finish in fourth place. This is only the second year that GC's team had finished with a winning record and in fourth place. Coach Lojko said, "Our record does not indicate what a good season we had. We lost many close games that could have gone the other way. Also, I upgraded our schedule this year, so we played many tougher teams this year as opposed to past years." Several individuals had outstanding years with Lorraine Orr leading the way. Lorraine became the first women's player in GC history to score 1,000 points this year. She hopes to lead the Hornets towards the top again next year.

The team prepares to take the court versus Eastern Mennonite.

Carol Burns looks to find an open teammate.

Wendy Shope, Kristin Bacek, and Carol Burns prepare to trap this Ferrum guard.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Paul Newman, who joined the squad in January, shoots for two against Methodist.

Russell Anderson slams one home versus Methodist College.

Norfleet Caudle goes up and over an Averett defender for a basket.

Greensboro College's Men's Basketball Team finished their first season under Head Coach Jim Tribbett with a record of 13-14 overall and a conference record of 6-8. The team finished in fourth place and hosted Va. Wesleyan in the first round of the tournament. The 85-74 win gave the Hornets their 13th win, easily erasing the previous season's record of 3-21. Coach Tribbett was pleased with the team's accomplishments, but feels the future will be even better. With a strong nucleus returning, including all-conference players Russell Anderson and Paul Newman, things are looking up once again to improve and compete for the conference championship and for a post-season berth.

THE HONEYBEES

The Honeybees are the hostesses that are present at all home basketball games. These ladies distribute programs, assist in ticket sales, and assist guests to their seats. The Honeybees are also responsible for operating the Hospitality Room. Dr. Milton Reece, GC's Athletic Director, is the proud founder and sponsor of the Honeybees, a tradition in Hanes Gymnasium. Pictured above are this year's members: front row — Dr. Reece, Cindy Garner, Anna Grisolia, Leslie Adams, and Phyllis Hedgecock. Back row — Patricia Hedgecock, Sandra McKeithan, Noelle Monette, and Queen Bee Sandy Williams.

G.C.'S CHEERLEADERS

The Greensboro College Cheerleaders ignite and entertain the crowds at Hanes Gymnasium during the basketball season. The ladies worked hard and developed some new cheers and stunts. The ladies spent much time on and off the court in order to support our teams, many times to small crowds. The cheerleaders strongly urge students and the college community to cheer on the Hornets. This year's cheerleaders were Phyllis Booze, Janine Gamble, Dina Hill, Debbie Shutt, Rosalind Rushing, and Montina Charo. This year's sponsor was Leslie Bryan.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

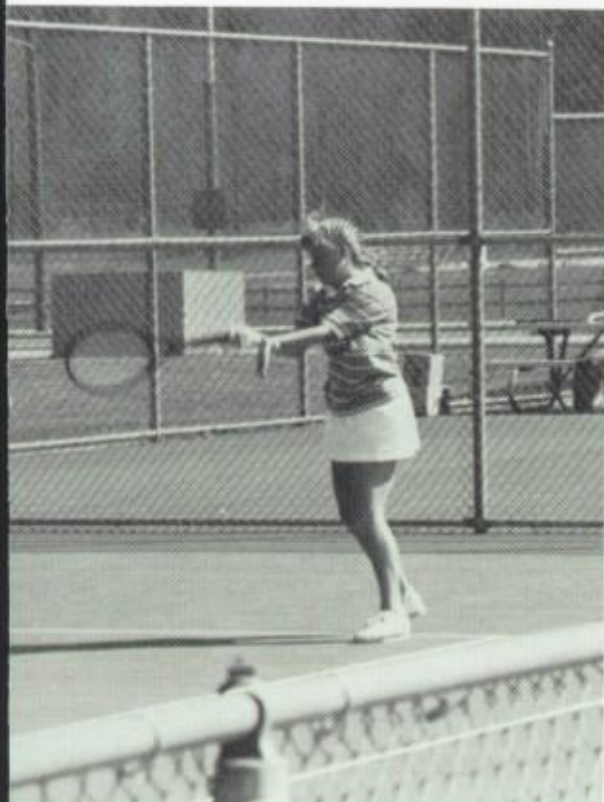

The Women's Tennis Team completed the season with an overall record of 3-10. This included a record of 1-5 with Dixie Conference opponents. By the looks of the records, you might think the team did not do so well. However, they proved people wrong by peaking in the conference tournament. The Hornets, carried by #3 Doubles of Tamara Swanson and Sondra Christy, finished in fifth place. Swanson and Christy, playing in the finals, were down in the last set 0-5, came from behind to win. For their accomplishment, they were selected to the All-Conference Team. Coach Sue Ireton, who will be leaving GC, still believes that GC returns much talent and that the women's tennis program is "definitely on the upswing."

MEN'S TENNIS

The Men's Tennis Team finished the regular season with an overall record of 2-8, and a conference record of 2-5. The team competed in the conference tournament and also finished in fifth place. The team's record was a reflection of a number of things, cancellations, forfeits, and a lack of experience. Senior Donnie Vernon was a definite bright spot on the team. Playing #4 singles, Donnie was the most consistent player and played exceptionally well in the conference tournament. For his efforts, he was selected to the 2nd Team Coach's All Tournament Team. Although the team will lose three seniors, Coach Poland sees improvement next year. With the addition of several top recruits, GC looks to regain the conference title.

The GC Softball Team is only in its' second year of competition. However, you should know that it finished in second place this year. The team finished with an overall record of 11-24 and a conference mark of 9-5. The team defeated Methodist in the tournament semi-finals, but then lost to defending champion VA Wesleyan in the finals. Coach Cathy Haddad said, "I believe we played the toughest schedule in the conference and we will continue to play the best teams. It's the only way to be invited to the Nationals, which is our goal." GC lost 16 out of 17 non-conference games to either Division I or III teams. Next years looks very bright and with the return of players such as Lorraine Orr, Pearl Kelly and Gena Inman, the future looks forward to see GC on top of the DIAC.

Lorraine Orr prepares for her next at-bat.

GOLF

Coach Jim Locke

Dale Callaghan

John Zurich

The Golf Team finished the season by competing in the National Tournament. This year's tournament was held in Mansfield, Ohio at the Westbrook Country Club May 19-22. After the first round, GC was in fourth place behind the great play of freshman Mike McGuire, who shot a two-under par 70. Unfortunately for the Hornets, things got worse, and the team ended the four day tournament in 16th place. Individuals who participated in the tournament included Doug Trenor, John Zurich, Mike McGuire, Dale Callaghan, and Steve Morton. Congratulations go out to Dale Callaghan, who was named to the District III Team, and to Doug Trenor, who was named to the Honorable Mention All-American Squad.

Preceding the National Tournament, the Hornets competed in seven spring tournaments, and did not place lower than 3rd when counting teams in their conference or district. The team finished second in the Conference Tournament behind Methodist College. GC was honored to host the 1988 NCAA National Tournament at Bryan Park Golf Course. Congratulations once again must go out to this year's squad for a very successful season as they carry on the GC Golf tradition!

Standing: Liz Decker, Tom Steagald (sponsor) Amy Rio

ALPHA CHI

Alpha Chi is a national academic honor society which honors students by electing them to membership. Juniors and Seniors with outstanding academic and leadership abilities are elected by a faculty committee. Students have different responsibilities and opportunities given to them through the society. The faculty advisor is Dr. Camilla Hoy.

1st Row: Lee Bowinkelman, Wendy Brown, Young, Elizabeth Decker, Tony Scotti, Pam Panchikal, Pattie Mack, Kim Rinko
2nd Row: David Goodman, Dr. Mayes, Mr. Coleman, Dr. Hoy, Patricia Warnock

CHORALE

The Greensboro College Chorale is a mixed chorus under the direction of Dr. Fred Beyer. The group performs for Chapel Services, The Festival of Lessons and Carols, and various area churches.

CAMPUS HONOR COURT

The Campus Honor Court is made up of seven members and two alternates selected and voted on by the student body. The court hears violations of the Campus Honor Code, as listed in the Hornet and decides the guilt or innocence of the students referred. They also decide on sanctions when students are found guilty. Members: Saulo Martinez, Virginia Maceluch, Munyaquita Brown, Sue Gilliam, Karen Shackelford, Noelle Monette, Bo Glenn

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The Greensboro College International Club was established in 1985 to allow Foreign Students and our students interested in international culture to meet and share their experiences. This year the club enjoyed shopping in Raleigh and Greensboro and a Japanese Dinner. Dr. Hoy is the advisor. Club Officers include Bob Barz — President, Pam Panchikal — Secretary, and Connie Brown — Treasurer. Pictured below is Miyuki Akiyama an exchange student from Nagasaki Wesleyan Junior College in Isahaya City, Japan.

ECHO

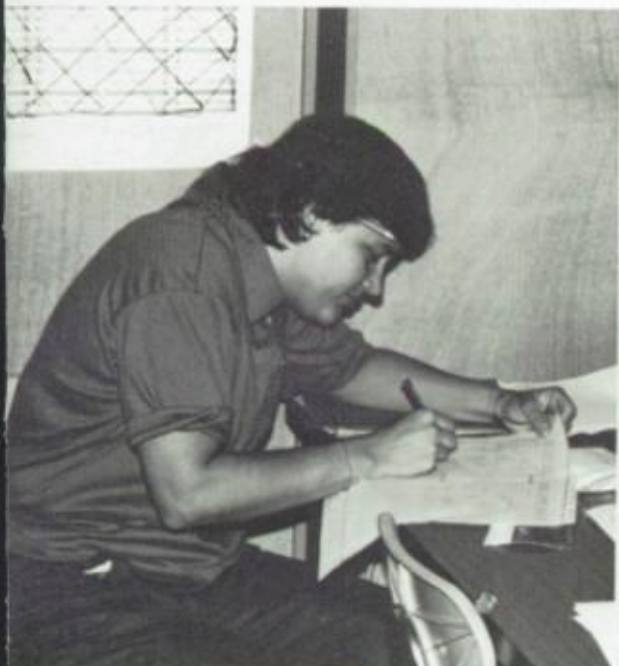

The Echo got off to a slow start this year but during the spring semester with a dedicated staff, pages began to take form. This year's Editor was Russ Bailey. Other staff members included Cynthia Galunas, Lora Lancaster, Becky Petras, and Coach Jean Lojko.

WHO'S WHO

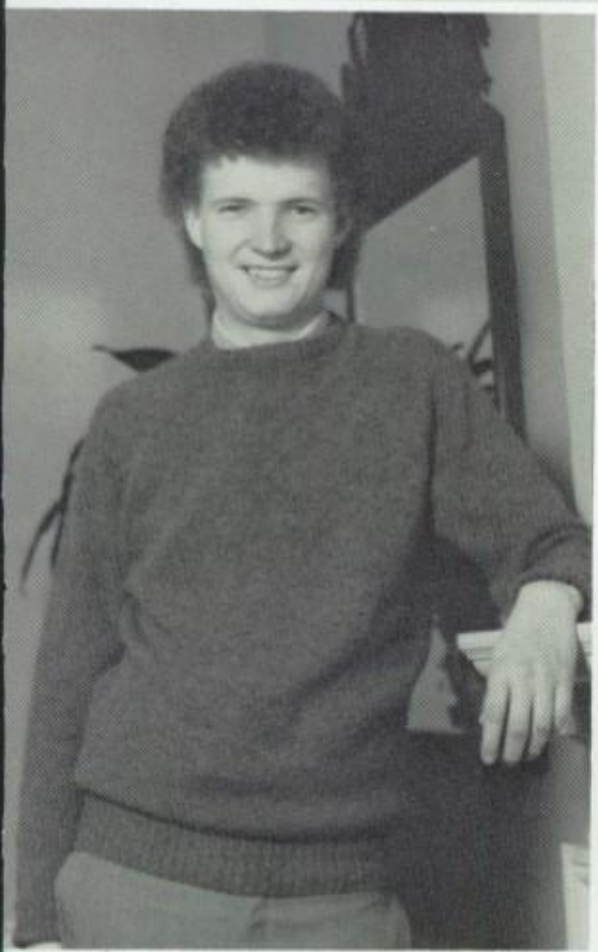

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities is a select group of college students who do not only excell in academics, but are also very active in extracurricular activities. They are nominated by faculty, staff, other students, and even by themselves. This year, 16 seniors were selected to represent GC in Who's Who for the 1986-1987 academic year. These students will receive recognition and certificates at Cap & Gown ceremonies during commencement weekend. CONGRATULATIONS ON A JOB WELL DONE!

- Degree granted in absentia

Guest speaker L. Richardson Preyer, seated in the middle, prepares to give his speech.

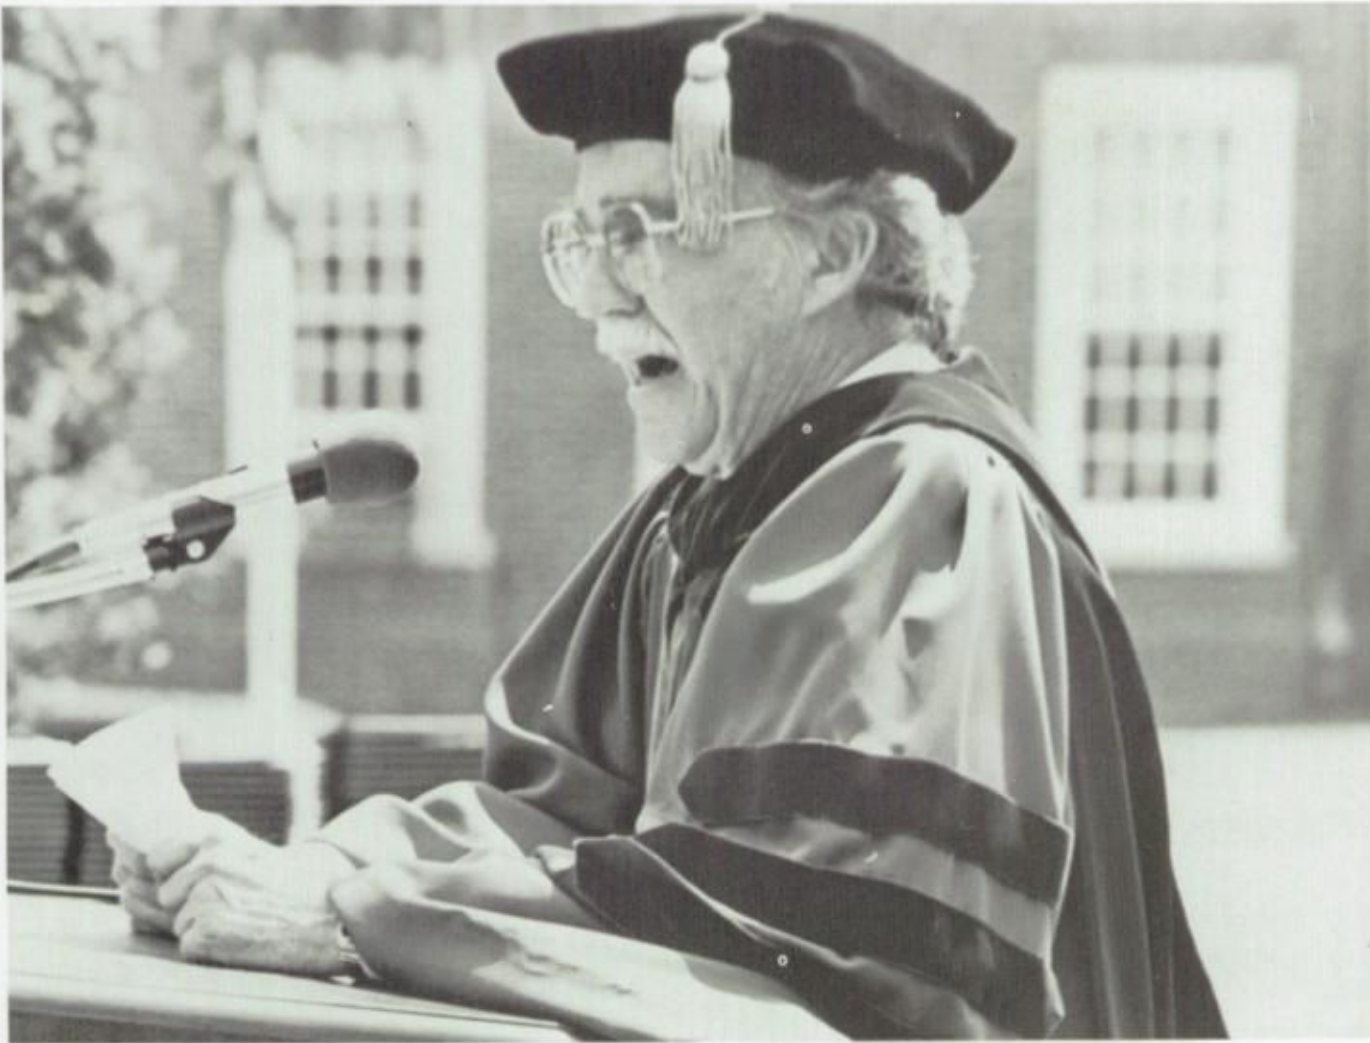

Senior Class speaker Joe Ross delivered an inspirational speech.

President Likins confers the Honorary Degrees.

President Likins presents Dr. Coleman with the Moore Award Professorship.

Mr. William D. Caffrey introduces the guest speaker.

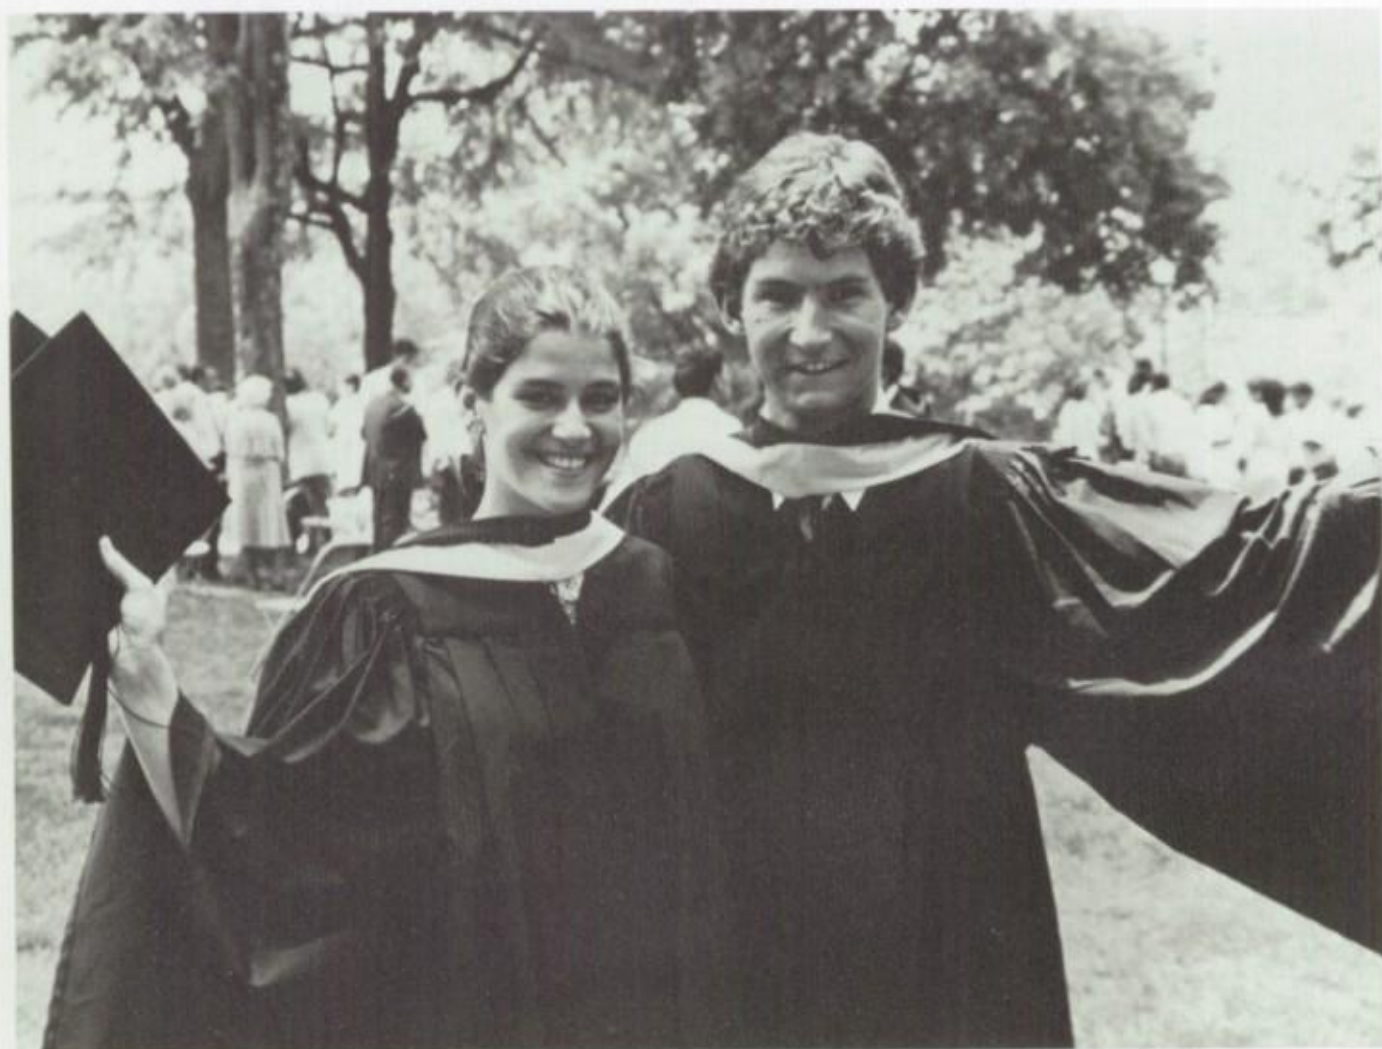

David Goodman was awarded the Alpha Chi Award for his academic excellence.

Bob Barz, Scott Browning, Noel Chambers, and Marisa Colby begin the recessional.

Wearing various animal noses, graduates continue to file out during the recessional.

The Class of '87 presents the Class of 1987!

FAREWELL G.C.

As I look back at the last four years, the time passed by much too quick. I can hardly remember my first day here at GC. However, I can safely say that I will always remember the friendships and relationships that I established. The friends I have made here are actually a small family. You see, here at GC, we have learned to share the good times along with the bad. In doing so, we learn from one another and grow accordingly. I would like to say that I haven't met a better bunch of people anywhere else. I hope that you can say the same. With much pride and joy, I can say that I will miss GC, but I shall always remember.

In closing, I wish to thank everyone who has helped me along the way this year; Coach Jean Lojko, Becky Petras, Lora Lancaster, Cynthia Galunas, the Post Office staff, Cindy Morris, Dean Frances Efird, Charlotte Duren, Dr. Harold Andrews, Patricia Hedgecock, Lee Moore, Misti Hospodor, Bo Glenn, Cathy Haddad, and Dr. Milton Reece.

To the Class of 1987, "We're outta here!", and to all the "serious" guys and girls who make this place what it is, you've made coming here all worth while.

Sincerely,

Russ Bailey,
Editor
